A Word from Father Drummond

In my homily for the 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, that is, two weeks ago, I mentioned in passing the need we have to increase our prayer life. This is an issue which needs a bit more attention. None of us prays as much as we should.

In Sacred Scripture we read of Jesus going off by Himself to pray. In Mark 1:35 we see Jesus getting up before dawn to go off to a secluded place to pray. In Mark 6:46 we see Him going up the mountain by Himself to pray; this is also reflected in Matthew 14:23, and in Luke 6:12 which also notes that He spent the whole night in prayer. And, of course, on the Night of Passion, He prays by Himself in the Garden of Gethsemane. This is recounted in all three of the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) which give us some of the details of His prayer, namely that He asked to be spared the Passion, if possible. Luke adds that an angel came to comfort Him even as he sweated drops of blood. All this, of course, is in addition to the public prayers He offers. The point I wish to make here is that if Jesus Himself needs time for private prayer, how much more so do we.

The disciples themselves feeling inadequate in their prayer, ask Jesus in Luke 11:1 to teach them how to pray. At this point Jesus gives them the Our Father. The text of the Our Father in Luke differs slightly from Matthew's version which is the one we all know and use and is even included in one of the central parts of the Mass. This is the basic model for all prayer, beginning with praise and adoration of God before literally coming down to earth and ending with petitions. With the words "Our Father" Jesus changes our relationship to God in a revolutionary way: previously God was so completely other that even His Name was not spoken because it is so Holy. Even today when reading the Torah in Synagogue good practicing Jews will not pronounce the Tetragrammaton, the four letter name of God, YHWH, but substitute the words "The Name," HaShem, or use a word for Lord, Adonai, whenever God's Name appears. But Jesus now tells us to call this same God, "Father." In Jesus Christ, our relationship to God becomes more intimate. And this intimacy can only be deepened through prayer.

All prayer can be divided into four categories — Petition, Adoration, Reparation and Thanksgiving; PART. Adoration is the highest form of prayer, and this is really just being with God and loving Him for no other reason than that He is God. Reparation is when we acknowledge our short-comings, our sinfulness and do penance. Thanksgiving acknowledges God's activity in our lives while Petition asks Him for things we need or others may need. The best Petition is that which is offered for others, which is Intercession. These can, of course, all spill over one into the other.

The Our Father is, as I mentioned, the model for our prayer with all the elements we need in prayer. There are many different ways of expressing our prayer as evidenced in the many different devotions offered to us, including the Rosary, Divine Mercy and the Liturgy of Hours. How we pray, and the more we pray, determines how closely we become configured to Christ. As we pray so we are formed. But our prayer and our very ability to pray is impacted on by how we live our lives. The more we turn away from God in our daily lives, the less inclined we are to pray, and the more shallow what prayer we do attempt becomes. Next week I will address the different ways of praying and how we can work to improve our prayer lives.

In Our Parish

You may have noticed -- that the Church Doors are wide open between the Sunday Masses. This is to facilitate those of our Parishioners who use walkers or wheelchairs, or simply find the doors heavy to open. Although this may increase the cost of our Air Conditioning or Heating, it is a worthwhile investment.

Diaper Collection -- this weekend August 5/6, especially sizes 3, 4, and 5. Donations benefit clients of: A Woman's Choice, a Pro-Life pregnancy Resource Center. www.AWomansChoiceCenter.com.

Afternoon of Recollection for Women -- will be held on Wednesday, August 9th, from 1-3 p.m. at St. Michael. This recollection is conducted by a priest of Opus Dei and consists of two meditations, one lay talk and the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We encourage all women and also moms with younger children to attend this one to one contact with Our Lord. For more information, please contact Lorraine Anderson, 703-425-0921.

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary -- is a Holy Day of Obligation. There will be a 7 p.m. vigil on Monday, August 14th. On Tuesday, August 15th, Masses will be celebrated at 8:30 a.m., 12 noon, and 7 p.m. (Latin Novus Ordo).

PARISH PICNIC -- Save the date: Sunday, October 1st.

EnCourage -- is a support group for faithful Catholics with same-sex attracted loved ones. What distinguishes the work of EnCourage is its commitment to offer faithful witness to Catholic teachings on sexual morality while addressing the needs of its members with charity and compassion. To this end, the group both professes an orthodox position on the immorality of homosexual acts and respects the human dignity of persons who have homosexual feelings. For more information about Courage International and other resources, visit <http://couragerc.org>.

FORMED – What is it and why is it a unique source of all things Catholic? -- FORMED is something like Catholic Netflix only better. It has the full scope of media – video study material (many with study guides), audio study material, ebooks, movies, and audio books. The number of resources has almost tripled since a year ago when we first took a parish subscription. The material is age appropriate from pre-reader to senior adult. If you already registered, check out what is now to study, watch, listen to, or read. Go to FORMED.org with your email and password; if you did not already register, go to FORMED.org and register (St. Michael's parish code is: 6VZDHB). The code is for anyone registered in the parish or living in the parish bounds. Call Deacon McCaffrey (571-643-6895) if there are any questions.
